

Linda Smith

Preparing to Manage/Lead People

- Participants will learn the differences between a leader and a manager.
- Participants will learn what skills are necessary to become a good leader.
- Participants will learn how to improve those skills.

In this speed session we will have a facilitated discussion about the fundamentals of leading people. What skills are helpful to be a good leader? What resources are available for individuals to improve upon those skills?