

Teresa Penbrooke

Networking is a Lifestyle

- Identify common opportunities and blocks for increasing networking.
- Recognize steps to engage and identify with peers, colleagues, mentors, and future employers.
- Discover 10 concepts for making networking an effortless lifestyle.

When you learn and embrace the ten concepts from this session, you'll learn to connect and engage to move forward. Networking is a lifestyle, not a task. It can be worked into your daily routine, effortlessly and happily. This way, you'll lessen your anxiety about meeting new people. Let's connect!