

Preserving Community Cultural & Historical Landscapes: Cemetery Planning,
 Management & Care
 December 6-7, 2018
 Mount Airy, NC

Thursday December 6

8:00-9:00 a.m.	Check-in
9:00-9:15 a.m.	Welcome	Barbara Jones, City Manager – City of Mount Airy
9:15 -10:15 a.m.	Keynote Speaker	William(Bill) Bibby , Cemeteries Supervisor – City of Charlotte
10:15-10:30am	Participant Introductions	Moderated by Jenn Beedle, Consultant – Recreation Resources Service
10:30-10:45 a.m.	Networking Break
10:45am-12:00pm	Session I: Fostering Life in Cemeteries- Effective Landscape Plantings and Management
12:00-1:00 p.m.	Lunch
1:00-2:15 p.m.	Session 2: Using GIS to Manage and Share Cemetery Data	Eric Wilson, GIS Application Developer – KCI Technologies
2:15-3:30p.m.	Session 3: Cemetery Policies	Swap Station Discussions Facilitated by Michella Huff - Parks, Cemetery & Grounds Maintenance Supervisor - Mt. Airy Parks & Recreation
3:30-5:30p.m.	Mount Airy Cemeteries & North Carolina Granite Corporation Quarry Tour	Oakdale Cemetery Old Methodist Cemetery North Carolina Granite Corporation Quarry
6:30 pm	Meet-up/Social	Thirsty Souls Community Brewing

Friday December 7, 2018

9:00-10:30 a.m.	Session 4: Make your cemetery full of life!	Robin Simonton, Executive Director – Historic Oakwood Cemetery
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-12:00pm	Session 5: Cemetery Panel: Partnerships & Inter-agency Cooperation	Moderated by Darren Lewis, Director Mount Airy Parks & Recreation
12:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.	Lunch
1:00-2:30 p.m.	Session 6: Cemeteries Monument Preservation followed by Successful Management of a Cemetery Maintenance Contract	Mark Stevens, ACME Stone Company; Danny Boyd, Owner - Boyd's Landscaping
2:30-3pm	Wrap-up/Closing Remarks	NC Cemeteries Workshop Planning Committee

Please help us continue to make the Cemeteries Workshop great; scan below and evaluate your experience.

See you in 2020!